Membership drive and marketing piece- Mary

Mary will send an email with updated membership list. Mary also reported that she will have a handout about "What PFAR does" by the Winter Solstice.

Membership-education meetings-Sam Ebersole in January-Carla and Jeff, Bird talk in March-Corinne
Jeff was going to contact Sam but didn't. Carla and Jeff did go to the Heritage Museum to check out the venue to see if its better than BloBack. It will be the 4th Thursday in January (Jan 26th).

Peg Runey is checking with Auburn Society. Corinne is also checking other sources for March or April.

Marketing/pr/brochure- Corinne and others

Chamber pitched in to get brochures made, if you need more let Corinne know, will have to do another print order from My Friendly Printer.

"Trout on the Route" and Cranes or Herons- Eric will report in December- Corinne- volunteers needed for different tasks

Eric will have something to show us at the December meeting, he is finishing up some commission pieces. Will have 10 of each cutout (Heron & trout)

Old Business

Website update- Corinne

Content and pictures are still needed.

New Business

Rubber Ducks from The Edge- Carla

There are about 300 ducks total and a space of 3'x5'x5' is needed to store them. Parks can store them but there is a chance they will go missing. Daniel volunteered to store the ducks. Carla will let Bob at the Edge know we will take them.

New board members- nominating committee for new members- Cynthia and Daniel

If anyone has any potential board members, please send them to Cynthia or Daniel.
